

Cardiff Bach Choir
Statement regarding Coronavirus
(posted 16th March 2020)

On May 9th 2020 Cardiff Bach Choir was to be performing at Hoddinott Hall in an exciting programme of 20th century music.

The dramatic sound of 'Carmina Burana' by Carl Orff
The rarely performed 'Songs and Cries of London Town' with its beautiful setting of Wordsworth's poem 'Upon Westminster Bridge' and the 'Choral Dances from Gloriana' by Benjamin Britten all accompanied by Fusion Percussion will ensure a great evening of music.

We regret to announce that the committee of Cardiff Bach Choir have taken the decision to postpone our concert of May 9th.

We do hope that we will be able to reschedule this programme in the Summer.

Please keep an eye on our website and Facebook page for up to date information.
